Re: Carnegie Mellon Technology Consulting in the Global Community Program
Summer 2021 Program Scholarship Award

Dear Laknath:

Regarding your participation in the Carnegie Mellon Technology Consulting in the Global Community summer 2021 program as a Student Consultant providing assistance to the Financial Intelligence Unit in Republic of Palau we are very pleased to advise you that you have been awarded a scholarship to assist you in covering your costs to participate in the program. The amount of the scholarship is $2,000.

One-half of the scholarship amount, or $1,000, will be paid to you promptly following our receipt of your timely signed acceptance of this scholarship, and the remaining one-half of the scholarship amount, or $1,000, will be paid to you upon your successful completion of your engagement with the Financial Intelligence Unit at the conclusion of this summer.

We expect you to diligently pursue your project with the Financial Intelligence Unit throughout the remainder of this summer.

Please note: This scholarship may be taxable income to you for U.S. Federal and/or state income tax purposes. Your receipt of this scholarship is subject to and contingent on your completion of any Carnegie Mellon University tax and other forms required for payment. These forms will be provided to you upon receipt of your signed acceptance of this scholarship. Depending on the jurisdiction in which you reside, Carnegie Mellon University may be required to withhold income taxes prior to making payment to you, the amount of payment you receive will be net of any required income tax withholdings.

This letter contains the terms and the entire agreement relating to the award of the Carnegie Mellon Technology Consulting in the Global Community summer 2021 program scholarship award to you. All rights and obligations of this letter shall be governed by and construed under
